

‘Corruption and Climate Change: Challenges and Responses’

Transparency International report launch kindly supported by the European Investment Bank and co-hosted by Energy, Environment and Resource Governance – Chatham House

21 September 2011

Venue: Chatham House, 10 St James’s Square, London

Agenda

13.30 – 14.00 Registration & coffee

SESSION 1 | Transparency International’s Global Corruption Report on Climate Change –
Good governance and the global climate change response

14.00 – 15.30

Welcome: EERG and TI

Chair: Laurence Cockcroft – Transparency International Introduction

Keynote: Sir David King - former UK Government Chief Science Adviser and Director of the Smith
School of Enterprise and the Environment at the University of Oxford
The global response to climate change and the imperative of good governance

Speakers: Lisa Elges - Programme Manager, Transparency International Report Overview: Governance, transparency and managing corruption

Alyson Warhurst - CEO, Maplecroft and Honorary Professor Warwick Business School
Mapping the challenge – how risks conflate and corruption hinders progress

Peter Newell - Professor of International Relations, University of Sussex
From global power politics to responsible collective governance

Fiona Napier, Global Witness
Why forests matter and scope for corruption

Panel Q and A

15.30 – 16.00 Coffee

SESSION 2 | Finance mechanisms for climate action – the scope for corruption and the importance of good governance

16.00 – 17.30

Chair: Laurence Cockcroft

Keynote: Simon Brooks - Vice President, European Investment Bank
Climate action financing and the centrality of good governance

Speakers: Ian Axe - CEO, Clearnet Group (TBC)

Aled Williams, U4 Anti-corruption Resource Centre
REDD - Scope for corruption and imperatives of good governance

Matthew Wyatt - Head of Climate and Environment Department, DfID
UNFCCC Funds and Green Climate Fund

Helen Henton - Standard Chartered Bank
Africa – the role of banks in facilitating good governance and anti-corruption

David Nussbaum - CEO WWF UK
Partnership approaches

Panel Q and A

17.30 – 18.00 Reception

Chatham House directions

Chatham House is located at 10 St James's Square, London SW1Y 4LE. The nearest Underground stations are Piccadilly Circus (three minutes' walk) and Green Park (five minutes' walk) – see map below.

Facilities

A staffed cloakroom will be available for any bags and coats. There are also (unstaffed) coat racks in the corridor leading to the meeting room, where items can be left at the owner's responsibility during the event.