
Chatham House Open Day Programme

Thursday, 26th November 2020 (16:00 to 18:30)
Online via Zoom

- 16:00 - 16:05 Welcome and Opening Remarks
- 16:05 - 16:30 Undertaking Policy Research
Dr Champa Patel, Director, Asia-Pacific Programme

Chatham House has been a source of independent analysis, trusted dialogue and influential ideas for one hundred years. Today, at the beginning of our second century, we continue to offer solutions to global challenges and actively seek to empower the next generation to change their world. Our diverse network of experts, researchers and staff all work together to produce rigorous analysis and answer the questions that are shaping our world. Aimed at delivering sustainable and equitable growth; peaceful and thriving societies; and accountable and inclusive governance, our second century goals set out the challenges we want to address in order to achieve our mission.

- 16:30 - 17:00 Q & A
- 17:00 – 17:45 Breakout discussions - participants can attend one from among the three sessions below that they have pre-registered for

How to engage with Chatham House | Zoom Breakout Room 1

From joining a diverse network of individuals who take a proactive interest in global affairs to engaging with our research and eminent speakers through informative events and debate, publications and journals, this session will highlight various opportunities available for engagement with Chatham House.

Career insights from Chatham House | Zoom Breakout Room 2

From intense research to mingling with politicians, what is working in a think tank actually like? What does a research fellow do on a typical day? Apart from research, what other roles are available? What is the working environment like and what skills are needed? Chatham House staff members and interns working in different roles will share their carer insights, interests and passion for international affairs.

Focus on Networking | Zoom Breakout Room 3

This session will provide an opportunity for informal networking with experts and peers to begin developing a strong contact base across a range of topics and geographies, and hear some top tips from a diverse range of experts working in the field.

17:45 - 18:15 Careers: Jobs, Fellowship and Internship Opportunities

Are you interested in gaining some work experience as an intern? Are you looking for your next career move? Chatham House provides an inclusive, supportive working environment that welcomes debate and diverse perspectives. Research is an important part of what we do, but there are many other types of job opportunities available too.

18:15 - 18:30 Q & A

18:30 Programme Ends

Event host and chair:
Alis Martin, Internships and Outreach Manager
amartin@chathamhouse.org