

Ukraine Forum & International Security Programme

---

Transitional Justice in Ukraine: What Might it Look Like?

17 March 2020, 09:30-13:00
Simulation Centre, Chatham House

09:00-09:30      Registration and coffee

09:30 – 11:00      Session 1: Transitional Justice Policymaking: Lessons for Ukraine

- How does the nature of an armed conflict and a peace deal shape a particular TJ toolkit?
- What is the role of the civil society and the population affected by the conflict in shaping TJ policy?
- What are the current preferences of Ukraine and Ukrainian society in TJ policy?
- What reforms are needed to launch TJ mechanisms in Ukraine and how long will it take to implement them?

Speakers:

Kirsty Brimelow QC, barrister, Doughty Street Chambers

Anton Korynevych, Representative of the President of Ukraine for Crimea

Taras Tsymbivskyy, Head, USAID Human Rights in Action Program; Ukrainian Helsinki Human Rights Union

Chair: Patricia Lewis, Director, International Security Programme, Chatham House

11:00 – 11:30      Coffee Break

11:30 – 13:00      Session 2: Truth-telling, Amnesties and Reconciliation during and post-Conflict

- What are the best ways of organising truth-telling in ongoing armed conflicts?
- How do different approaches to truth-telling contribute to building a common narrative about the conflict?
- What are best practices when organising the amnesty policy?
- How should lustration be handled?

Speakers:

Miles Jackson, Associate Professor of Law, University of Oxford

Oleksandra Matviychuk, Head of the Board, Centre for Civil Liberties

Chair: Kateryna Busol, Robert Bosch Stiftung Academy Fellow, Chatham House

This event is held under the Chatham House Rule