

Anglo-Japanese Cooperation in an Era of Growing Nationalism and Weakening Globalization

Chatham House, 10 St James's Square
London SW1Y 4LE

Draft Agenda

Day One: Monday 18 September

09:45-10:15 Registration

10:15-10:30 Opening remarks

Yohei Sasakawa, Chairman, The Nippon Foundation

Robin Niblett, Director, Chatham House

10:30-11:45 Keynote speeches | Stress-testing democracy

To what extent does the populist surge, authoritarian politics and anti-elitism threaten conventional politics? What can and should be done to maintain mainstream, democratic politics?

Akihiko Tanaka, President, National Graduate Institute for Policy Studies (GRIPS), Japan

Speaker TBC

Chair: Akiko Yamanaka, Special Ambassador for World Tsunami Awareness Day, Japan

11:45-12:45 Lunch

Niall Malcolm Room

12:45-14:15    Session One | Globalization: The Search for Survival

How can the UK and Japan cooperate to avoid a return to protectionism and provide sustainable economic growth? What role might fiscal policy and infrastructure spending play in fostering economic recovery?

Sir Michael Rake, Chairman, BT Group

Randall Jones, Head, Japan/Korea Desk, Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development

Speaker TBC

Chair: Rana Foroohar, Global Business Columnist and Associate Editor, Financial Times

14:15-14:35    Coffee break

14:35-16:05    Session Two | Regionalism and its limits: The future of Europe and the Asia-Pacific

What are the structural, ideological and institutional obstacles to, and opportunities for, reinvigorated Asian and European communities? Does the renewed focus on national interest mark the end of effective regionalism in Europe and Asia?

Chan Heng Chee, Chairman, Lee Kuan Yew Centre for Innovative Cities, Singapore University of Technology and Design; Ambassador of Singapore to the United States (1996-2012)

Yorizumi Watanabe, Professor, Faculty of Policy Management, Graduate School of Media and Governance, Keio University

Speaker TBC

Chair: Julie Gilson, Reader in Asian Studies, Department of Political Science and International Studies, University of Birmingham

16:05-16:25    Coffee break

16:25-18:00    Session Three | Foreign policy and domestic politics: The populist wave and the impact of public opinion in both Asia and the West

What impact will the new populism have on politics in Japan and the UK, both in shaping domestic politics and the foreign policy options of both governments?

Kiichi Fujiwara, Professor of International Politics, University of Tokyo

Barbara Lippert, Director of Research; Member, Executive Board, German Institute for International and Security Affairs

The Rt Hon. the Lord Lansley CBE, Chair, UK-Japan 21st Century Group; Leader, House of Commons and Lord Privy Seal (2012-14)

Chair: John Nilsson-Wright, Senior Research Fellow, Asia Programme, Chatham House

18:00-18:45    Drinks reception
Niall Malcolm Room

Day Two: Tuesday 19 September

09:30-10:00 Registration

10:00-10:30 Welcoming remarks and recap Day One

John Nilsson-Wright, Senior Research Fellow, Asia Programme, Chatham House

10:30-12:00 Session Four | China as an Economic Actor: Opportunity or Challenge?

How sustainable is Chinese economic growth? What are the risks of a new US-China trade conflict and how might such a conflict affect the Japanese and UK economies?

Nicholas R. Lardy, Anthony M. Solomon Senior Fellow, Peterson Institute for International Economics

Jia Qingguo, Professor and Dean, Department of Diplomacy, School of International Studies, Peking University

Masato Kitera, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Japan to France; Ambassador of Japan to China (2012-16)

Chair: Isabel Hilton OBE, CEO and Editor, chinadialogue

12:00-13:00 Lunch

Niall Malcolm Room

13:00-14:30 Concluding Session | The UK-Japan Alliance and relations with the US

What has been the nature of UK-Japan bilateral relations from the Anglo-Japanese Alliance to the present? How have the UK and Japan developed their relations with the US and Europe through this period? What is the future for these bilateral alliances in the era of President Trump?

Michael Pillsbury, Advisor, US Department of Defense

Rosemary Foot, Professor and Senior Research Fellow in International Relations, Department of Politics and International Relations, University of Oxford

Akihiko Tanaka, President, National Graduate Institute for Policy Studies (GRIPS), Japan

Koji Tsuruoka, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Japan to the United Kingdom

Chair: Robin Niblett, Director, Chatham House

14:30-14:45 Closing Remarks

Robin Niblett, Director, Chatham House