Are Ukraine’s Anti-Corruption Reforms Working?
6 March 2019
Venue: Diplomatic Academy of Ukraine, Velyka Zhytomyrska St, 2, Kyiv

14:00-14:30 Registration

14:30-14:45 Welcome and Opening Remarks

Ambassador Sergiy Korsunsky, Head of the Diplomatic Academy
Eka Tkeshelashvili, Head, EU Anti-Corruption Initiative, Ukraine

14:45-16:00 Assessing results of Ukraine’s Anti-Corruption Reforms since the Euromaidan

- Presenting key findings of the Chatham House anti-corruption study;
- The nature of corruption in Ukraine and how best to uproot it;
- What are the effects of new anti-corruption measures? Are they addressing the core of the problem?
- Strength and weakness of new anti-corruption infrastructure

Speakers:
John Lough, Associate Fellow, Russia and Eurasia Programme, Chatham House
Vladimir Dubrovskiy, Senior Economist, CASE Ukraine

Moderator:
Eka Tkeshelashvili, Head, EU Anti-Corruption Initiative, Ukraine

16:00-16:30 Refreshments and networking

16:30-18:15 Looking Forward: Top Priorities for Effective Anti-Corruption Policy

- Accountability for corruption and how to strengthen in;
- Update on establishing the High Anti-Corruption Court;
- Restructuring Ukraine’s economy to limit corruption opportunities;
- How can civil society be more effective in its anti-corruption efforts?

Screening of a Chatham House documentary ‘Ukraine’s Anti-Corruption Battle: the Case of Kharkiv’

Speakers:
Mykhailo Zhernakov, Head of DeJure Foundation
Ksenia Liapina, Head of State Regulatory Service
Oleksiy Honcharuk, Head of Better Regulation Office, Government of Ukraine

Moderator:
Natalia Sokolenko, journalist, Hromadske Radio

Simultaneous (English / Ukrainian) translation will be provided

This event is organised in cooperation with the EU Anti-Corruption Initiative and Chatham House. EUACI is financed by the European Union and co-financed and implemented by DANIDA

Chatham House research was produced with the financial support of the European Union. Its contents are the sole responsibility of Chatham House and do not necessarily reflect the views of the European Union.