

The Role of the Private Sector in Global Health Security

Thursday 28 September 2017

Supported by

08.30 – 08.50 Registration & coffee

08.50 – 09.00 Opening remarks – Professor David Heymann, Centre on Global Health Security, Chatham House

09.00 – 09.30 Keynote address – Arnaud Bernaert, Head of Global Health and Healthcare Industries, World Economic Forum

09.30 – 11.00 Session 1: Framing the debate – defining the breadth of ‘the private sector’ and the scope of ‘global health security’

This session will explore the scale of private sector involvement in the current global health architecture and speakers will assess the case for and against expanding the involvement of the private sector in health service delivery

Chair: Ryan Morhard, Project Lead, Global Health and Healthcare Industries at World Economic Forum

- Diah S. Saminarsih, Special Adviser to the Minister of Health, Ministry of Health, Republic of Indonesia
- Prof Catherine Goodman, LSHTM
- Ikuo Takizawa, Deputy Director General, Human Development Department, JICA
- Charlotte Ersboll, Senior Advisor, UN Global Compact

11.00 – 11.30 Coffee Break

11.30 – 13.00 Session 2: Facilitating innovation – how to create better environments and systems that support new solutions for global health challenges

Speakers will reflect on the conditions required to facilitate the creation of new health technologies and services and how multi-sector approaches can support better environments for innovation

Chair: Rob Yates, Director, Chatham House UHC Policy Forum

- Luc Debruyne, President, Global Vaccines, GlaxoSmithKline
- Arnaud Bernaert, Head of Global Health and Healthcare Industries, World Economic Forum
- Dr Guénaél Rodier, Director Department of Global Capacities, Alert & Response, Outbreaks and Health Emergencies, WHO
- Dr Lucica Ditiu, Executive Director, Stop TB Partnership
- Dr Kiyoshi Kurokawa, Director and Chair, Global Health Innovative Technology Fund

13.00 – 13.45 Lunch

13.45 – 15.15 Session 3: Striking a balance – how best to finance, govern and evaluate partnerships between the private sector and public health agencies

Discussions will focus on creating transparency in partnerships between private sector groups and public sector authorities. Speakers will also consider frameworks for governing and evaluating the success of multi-sector partnerships in the context of health related SDGs.

Chair: Prof Hilary Thomas, Chief Medical Officer and Partner, KPMG

- Dr Päivi Sillanaukee, Permanent Secretary of the Ministry of Social Affairs and Health of Finland
- Dhevi Kumar, Senior Program Manager, Global Health, Vulcan
- Dr Seamus O'Brien, Executive Director, Global External Scientific Affairs, Pfizer
- Dr Adrian Thomas, Vice President Global Market Access, Commercial Strategy Operations and Global Public Health, Johnson & Johnson
- Dr Osamu Kunii, Head, Strategy, Investment and Impact Division, The Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria

15.15 – 15.30 Coffee break

15.30 – 16.45 Session 4: Identifying the optimal role that the private sector can play in global health

Speakers will summarise and provide recommendations on the main themes of previous sessions.

Chair: Dr Gavin McGregor-Skinner, Senior Global Health Security Advisor, Abt Associates

- Dr Tom Kariuki, Director of the Alliance for Accelerating Excellence in Science in Africa (AESAs), African Academy of Sciences
- Francesca Viliani, Head of Public Health Consulting Services and Community Health Programmes, International SOS
- Jennifer Esposito, Worldwide General Manager, Health and Life Sciences, Intel Corporation
- Prof David McCoy, Global Public Health, Queen Mary University London

16.45 – 17.00 Closing remarks – Dr Suerie Moon, Director of Research, Global Health Centre, Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies, Geneva, and Chatham House Associate Fellow

17.00 – 17.30 Drinks reception

A Chatham House meeting summary report will be made available online.