

Books reviewed

November 2017

ALPHER: No end of conflict	1497	KEPEL: Terror in France	1487
		KOVALEV: Russia's dead end	1491
BREEN: The new Koreans	1501
BRICEÑO-RUIZ and MORALES, eds: Post-hegemonic regionalism in the Americas	1506	LITTLE: Us versus them	1504
		LONGMAN: Memory and justice in post-genocide Rwanda	1498
COLE: Convergence or conflict in the Taiwan Strait	1503	MAIER: Once within borders	1474
		MONAGHAN: The new politics of Russia	1492
DE CAMPOS: The global health crisis	1485	MOSES and LETNES: Managing resource abundance and wealth	1483
GANGULY: Engaging the world	1500
GEARTY: On fantasy island	1488	QUINN-JUDGE: The Third Force in the Vietnam wars	1473
GESSEN: The future is history	1489
GRAUER: Commanding military power	1476	ROTBERG: The corruption cure	1481
GYNGELL: Fear of abandonment	1502
HALL, ed.: Radicals and reactionaries in twentieth-century international thought	1471	TILLMAN: Dollar diplomacy by force	1507
HANNIGAN: The geopolitics of deep oceans	1484	VAN CREVELD: More on war	1480
HOROWITZ, STAM and ELLIS: Why leaders fight	1477	VAN GENUGTEN: Libya in western foreign policies, 1911–2011	1496
JEVON: Glubb Pasha and the Arab Legion	1495	VOLPI: Revolution and authoritarianism in North Africa	1493
JONES: Waging insurgent warfare	1478

